

Rusty says he has enjoyed cooking his whole life His favorite thing to make is Mexican food: tacos and quesadillas. Another long-time favorite he can do independently is Pigs-in-a-blanket with sesame seeds on top. We recently bought him his own electric skillet and he initiated it with a delicious chicken stir-fry. A few weeks ago he roasted his first whole oven-stuffer chicken which turned out beautifully!

Rusty was part of the Inaugural Cooking Club Class during the Summer of 2019, Rusty also took part in the Summer/Fall Cooking Club Class. Rusty always brings a lot of enthusiasm and creativity to his cooking.
