

Eric has always had an interest in cooking. He started making omelets he was quite young. He got his commercial kitchen experience starting in high school when he worked in the cafeteria. Eric then took a catering class at the Davis Center from age 18 to 22 years old. After Eric graduated from High School he worked at Wildflour kitchen for 10 years and stopped in 2020 because of COVID-19. Eric has done almost every task there is to a in the kitchen. Eric loves good food and there aren't too many things he won't eat or at least try. Since Ted, a good cook, has lived with us for the last 3 1/2 years Eric has become even a more adventurous eater. In fact, last weekend, Eric and Ted went into the woods behind our house Sunday to pick violets to add to the veal dish Ted made!

Eric can make an omelet or an English muffin with coffee for breakfast. For lunch Eric can get his own sandwich, pickles and chips. Eric has really enjoyed the DSANV Cooking Club, and the classes have made Eric more interested in what is going on in our kitchen at home. As COVID-19 restrictions continue to be lifted, the hope is Eric will start going to the grocery store and help more with meal planning. Also, before COVID-19, Eric worked part time at Pieros Corner as a bus boy, and was loved by the entire staff. Eric is excited to get back to Pieros Corner.
